

If I were to explain this lesson again, I would use the same methods, strategies, and activities because they facilitate the students' understanding, in addition to using different games and techniques such as Kahoot, Word Wall, and PowerPoint. These methods help the students and motivate them to pay attention to the teacher's explanation and understand the lesson.