

Bancroft, Suvarna, and Layton's (2018) 8th edition of "Theory and Practice of Histological Techniques" is a comprehensive guide covering the theoretical underpinnings and practical applications of histological methods. The book, published in China, provides a detailed explanation of various techniques used in the preparation and examination of tissue samples for microscopic analysis.