

Japanese design is a blend of Japanese and Scandinavian design, characterized by clean lines, natural materials, natural elements, and an emphasis on simplicity