

While your client is spending a holiday in one of the touristic hotels in Sharm, he decided to take a jetty with his partner to see their son while he was snorkeling. The jetty was secured to the shoreline at one end and was about 30– 40 m in length and there were loose ropes running along each side. Due to instability of the jetty the client fall down sustain severe injuries