

The New Wing: The collection housed in the new wing shows how various styles and themes, such as geometric designs, scrolls of Acanthus and vine leaves, and friezes, inhabited by rabbits, peacocks, birds, and rural activities, passed from the Hellenistic and Coptic legacy into the Islamic artistic vocabulary in Egypt