

If Mr. Ahmad had eaten breakfast despite being instructed to fast (NPO) before his scheduled surgery, the situation should be managed carefully to minimize the risk of complications. Evaluate Current Condition: Assess Mr. Ahmad for any signs of distress, such as nausea, vomiting, or abdominal discomfort, which could indicate an increased risk of aspiration during anesthesia. Here's how you would approach it: 1.2