

Last summer, I got an opportunity from the foundation to be sent to Singapore during the summer and I decided to seize the opportunity because opportunities do not come again and from the first day we saw the efforts of our embassy and our supervisors to provide us with comfort and safety. The program focused on developing leadership skills, and we delved deeper into sustainability, artificial intelligence and programming. The program consisted of morning classes and in the afternoon we applied what we learned outside