

I am drawn to volunteer with the European Solidarity Corps because of its commitment to fostering solidarity and positive change across communities I believe that through volunteering with the European Solidarity Corps I can contribute my skills and experiences to make a meaningful difference in the lives of others I am inspired by the Corps' emphasis on promoting inclusion diversity values that resonate deeply with me Volunteering not only allow me to contribute to meaningful projects but also to learn from others expand my horizons and make lasting connections