

My dream is to become a doctor. The ideal environment, infrastructure, and modern equipment distributed throughout all its facilities and halls enable it to do so, and this is nothing but the fruits of the effort to harness expertise and energies in the care and interest in higher education for women