

In the younger subgroup (below 57 years), ORs were significantly higher for all cardiometabolic risk factors.