The research deals with collecting and studying the hadiths contained in the angels' supplication for the believers in the honorable Sunnah, through the inductive, analytical and critical approach.The research recommended the importance of clarifying the areas from which a Muslim benefits in his worship, with a focus on mentioning what concerns his relationship with other of God's creatures to whom God Almighty has entrusted a number of tasks for his care.It also revealed the virtue of the angels' supplication for the believers and that it is an answered supplication, and that it has been proven in the Prophetic Sunnah a number of circumstances in which the angels call upon the believers for acts of obedience and deeds that they are familiar with.With the need for researchers to pay attention to clarifying the Muslim's status before God, and this includes preserving him and subjugating angels and other creatures to pray and ask forgiveness for him.The research was divided into an introduction, preface, two sections, a .conclusion, and indexes.The research included (14) fourteen hadiths

lakhasly.com © تم تلخيص النص بواسطة موقع لخصلي