

ghala: Let us be the guardians of our Saudi culture, the storytellers who keep the flames of our??? heritage alive together [The lights gradually fade, leaving a sense of hope and a call to action.] layla: Today, as we stand here thanks to the remarkable woman who shaped our history, let us carry their stories with us as a reminder of the importance of preserving our traditions and passing them on to future generations.[Scene 2: Living Room – Present Day] [layla and ghala open the journal and begin reading aloud, as the stage transforms into a courtyard in 1727.[Scene 1: Living Room – Present Day] [Two girls, ghala and layla, are sitting in a living room, surrounded by books and artifacts.] layla: (excitedly) ghala, look what I found in the attic!layla: We have learned that in the tapestry of our history, every thread plays a vital role in shaping who we are.Ghala: (curiously) Wow, it looks ancient.???????].1???????An old journal!Let's see what's inside