

It is the effect where when making conversation, the listener cannot grasp the significance, meaning or message of the speaker. So there is no convergence of communication in the conversation and lead to missed communication.