

when I was a baut five or six years old, lhad asmall accident,l was playing with a glass tea cup and placedit behind me it broke,and when I stepped back I accidentelly stepped on the broken glass , my mother quickly come to help me and called my fother , who took me to the hospital , the doctors cleaned the wound and stitched my foot , it was a scary moment but I learned to be more careful after that