

A.C. The justice approach proposes that decision makers be equitable, fair, and impartial in the distribution of costs and benefits to individuals and groups