

Supporting medical research Overview: Promote research and innovation in the fields of health, especially in developing countries, and develop medicines and vaccines to combat incurable diseases. Combat infectious diseases Overview: Eliminate pandemics such as AIDS, tuberculosis, malaria, and neglected tropical diseases, and reduce diseases such as hepatitis C. 4. Reduce deaths from non-communicable diseases Conclusion: Reduce premature deaths from heart disease, cancer, diabetes, and chronic respiratory diseases through prevention, treatment, and mental health promotion. Reducing maternal mortality Summary: Reduce the maternal mortality ratio to less than 70 per 100,000 live births by 2030 through improved pregnancy and childbirth care. 2. 3. 5. 6. 7. 8. 9. 10