

Global warming caused the sea level of glaciers and the melting of the caps, the sinking of the low license, desertification losing crops, the depth of storms, the spread of various diseases, and the covering of some organisms