The manipulation of information or context, which is closely related to the em bellishment of numbers, is the misrepresentation of events, usually to put a good face on a bad situation. The writer here unethically uses slanted language and intentionally misleading euphemisms to misinterpret events for readers. Manipulation: Looking ahead to 2014, the United Funds Group is exceptionally optimistic about its long – term prospects in an expanding global market