

These are the Trivedi brothers – the high people of those posh society !They run an advertising agency which they have managed to secure from a man who owed them money .They are , no doubt , business ? people .But what sort of business people are they