

The Essentials of Infection Prevention and Control: The primary goal of the Infection Prevention and Control Programme is to prevent the transmission and acquisition of infection to patients, family members, visitors and health care workers at healthcare facilities