

choreography showed improvement in some parameters related to the use of visual input in controlling COP. Among various standardized balance assessments, Biodex Balance