

Content of research poster Introduction: Include only the need to-know information to set up the background and context. The format should be in your discipline's typical citation style (e.g., APA, AMA, Nature). Methods: Describe your experimental set-up and protocol. References: Include citations for any works you have referenced. Use a bibliography and embedded citations. Showcase your figures and charts.