My Favorite Restaurant One of my favorite restaurants is Ben's Diner on Fourth Street because it's perfect for a casual, delicious meal.Or how about chicken fajitas, served beside your table in a sizzling skillet, with a spicy aroma I can't resist?Their Greek salac is famous for its fresh ingredients: bright green lettuce leaves, deep red tomatoes, and tangy purple olives.The restaurant is brightly lit and spotlessly clean, with gleaming tables and sparkling floors.Served on a soft toasted bun, it's crunchy on the outside and moist and peppery inside.The pleasant noise of conversation and the soothing clatter of dishes will surround you If you're not already hungry, the rich smell of homemade chicken soup with coming from .the kitchen will get you ready to eat.Look for their red neon sign with its flashing knife and fork
