COPs and system developers' meetings The Community of Practice (CoP) and system developers' meetings are crucial components in the development of the Diabetic Assistance for Children App (DAFC).Healthcare Professionals: Provide insights into practical aspects of diabetes care, contributing to the app's relevance and usability.These meetings under the guidance of our academic supervisor are pivotal in enhancing project progress and facilitating effective knowledge acquisition, crucial for the app's success.CollaborationandKnowledgeSharing:Thesemeetingsaimtofostera collaborative environment where knowledge, experiences, and best practices are shared among developers, healthcare professionals, and other stakeholders.4.2.1 Purpose and Objectives 1.4.2.2 Composition of COPS .1.2.3.2.3.4