

Entrepreneurship is the process of forming an idea or an institution characterized by creativity through–1 activities based on skills, interests, and experiences.4– EnterComp (Entrepreneurship competence) is the main tool to understand entrepreneurship competency, seeing entrepreneurship as a transversal competence, meaning it has all the abilities that are useful across all areas of life /work/ capabilities that .can be used across different aspects of life and work