

Our innovative wearable device addresses critical challenges in healthcare, focusing on nurse burnout and patient safety. Targeting nurses in high-stress medical and critical care settings, our device is essential as the healthcare landscape evolves, particularly under Saudi Arabia's Vision 2030. By computerizing documentation and upgrading communication, we aim to improve nursing workflows and patient care.