

An emergency lighting system is crucial for ensuring safety during power outages or emergencies. It provides essential illumination to guide occupants to exits, thereby facilitating safe evacuation.