

Set in the Salinas Valley of California, East of Eden traces the intertwined histories of the Trask and Hamilton families across generations. As the boys grow, they reenact the biblical story of Cain and Abel, with Cal struggling with his perceived inherited darkness and yearning for his father's love, while Aron embodies innocence.