

In our part of the world, it's normal to come from a large family and share personality traits with several family members. My uncle and I both like outdoors activities. I like cold weather and playing outside with my friends, but my uncle enjoys sitting and reading by the fireplace. My uncle isn't competitive at all. We both enjoy riding our bikes and going for walks. I really like visiting his friend's booth at the Farmers' Market. Sometimes he and I play cards, although I'm not a fan of cards, I'm too energetic to sit for so long! On the other hand, when we play one of my video games, I have fun because I'm competitive. But it doesn't really matter to me what we do together. Everyone tells me that I take after my uncle, although we're different in some ways. We both love nature. We fit together
