Assessment is the basis for all intervention and must be both thorough and valid in order to ensure that treatment is appropriate.Assessment in two stages: Initial assessment Detailed assessment Assessment begins from the moment a referral is received or, if specific referrals are not made in a particular setting, from the moment the therapist starts to identify those clients who could benefit from occupational therapy.

lakhasly.com © تم تلخيص النص بواسطة موقع لخصلي