The Celts and Their Religion When Greek travelers visited what is now Great Britain in the fourth century B.C., they found an island settled by people closely related to the tall, blond Celtic warriors who had sacked Rome earlier.in 387 B.c. Among these island Celts was a group called Brythons or Britons, who .left their permanent stamp in one of the names eventually adopted by the land they settled

lakhasly.com © تم تلخيص النص بواسطة موقع لخصلي