

One night, while I was camping in the desert with my cousin, something very strange happened. At first, we thought it was a plane, but it moved in ways that planes can't. It stopped in the air, turned sharply, and then disappeared. It made me wonder if it was a UFO