

Kate Martin and Gabbie Marshall show off their close bond as they attend Iowa vs. Virginia showdown together. Iowa Hawkeyes fans got a glimpse of their returning stars as Kate Martin and Gabbie Marshall made it to the game against Virginia Tech Hokies at the Spectrum Center. They outscored Virginia Tech 22–10 by making nearly 70% of their shots and limiting the opposition to just 31% shooting. Kate Martin and Gabbie Marshall surprised Jada Gyamfi. Jada Gyamfi, Kate Martin and Gabbie Marshall were supposed to mount a 2-month long vacation this summer, where they would have rented a cabin in Colorado and lived a slower life than their Iowa days. Without informing Gyamfi, the UNC student took multiple flights to Iowa, where she was picked up by the Aces guard. March Madness WBB posted one of their snaps. Even though the Hawkeyes cruised to a 71–52 win, the game had its nail biting moments. Martin and Marshall were spotted seated courtside, cheering for the Hawkeyes and dressed up in the program's merchandise. Gabbie Marshall recorded the entire journey and posted it on TikTok on .Oct. 10
