

Living rooms and dayrooms should be furnished with comfortable chairs and tables that cannot be easily thrown or taken apart and used as a weapon. Fabrics should be stain resistant, easily cleaned and able to withstand abuse, including punctures. Lamps, coffee tables and other loose accessories should not be used. Furniture edges should be rounded and not easily damaged