

Doha Tower primarily serves as a commercial building, hosting corporate offices and business headquarters for local and international companies