

My family went to Kuwait last summer to spend a vacation and I was with them during this wonderful vacation. Messilah is one of the biggest and grandest beaches in the entire country and we thoroughly enjoyed our stay there. The beach is filled with white sands where we often walked for an hour or two along the seashore to enjoy the beautiful surroundings. The natural views of the beach were outstanding and I loved the seafood.