

To solve a quadratic equation, first rewrite it in the standard form $ax^2 + bx + c = 0$. Then, substitute the coefficients a, b, and c into the quadratic formula: $(-b \pm \sqrt{b^2 - 4ac}) / (2a)$. This formula provides the solutions for x.