

The Boston Tea Party: The Intolerable Acts united all the colonies. The twelve men that were –6 encouraged into action came to the help of Massachusetts, making sure needed purchases were .transported and concentrated to them. The redcoats were marching their way bound for Concord