

A famous philosopher and writer, known for his influential works on political philosophy and education,
.especially during the Enlightenment