

I remember a very happy thing when I was a child. This was my first time camping with my parents and brother at Chenoua Plage in Tipaza. In the evening, we all gathered around the fire and sang and danced until midnight. The scenery is stunning and beautiful, and I am so happy to spend my vacation in such a beautiful place. I was 7 years old