

Old and weary, Santiago embodies both hope and challenge. His unwavering belief in catching a large fish, despite his age and physical limitations, exemplifies his persistent hope. The arduous struggle against the sea, the massive fish, and predatory sharks highlights the immense challenges he faces