

Drug classes with distinctive endings in their names help identify their class and mechanism of action. These drugs work by blocking enzymes that narrow blood vessels, lowering blood pressure, preventing clotting, stabilizing heart rhythm, and removing sugar and salt from the blood through urine.