

Shopping trends are constantly evolving, influenced by changes in technology, culture, and society. Experiential shopping involves creating immersive shopping experiences that engage all the senses.