

Prevention: Screening and Testing: Identify individuals at risk of HCV infection through targeted screening programs, and provide testing to diagnose infections early. Blood Safety Measures: Ensure the safety of blood and blood products through rigorous screening and testing protocols to prevent transfusion-related HCV transmission.