When the wind speed is greater than your cut wind speed, the induction generator that moves the wind? is combined with the grid. The PV cluster voltage is taken care of to a three-stage six stage Current-Controlled Voltage Source Inverter (CC-VSI) which is associated with the framework through an inductor. The regulator for the inverter shifts the inverter current to follow a reference current.