

The franchisee is usually an independent local businessperson who agrees with the franchise owner to
.operate the business on a local or regional basis