

Robots are like super-smart toys that can do jobs for us. They can explore places that are dangerous for people, like volcanoes or the bottom of the ocean. If we want to learn about faraway planets, a spacecraft is great. They can even help us build things in factories! That's awesome