

Reflection is the process of thinking deeply or pondering about something, often to gain insight
.or understanding