

Tone refers to the attitude or perspective that the poet adopts toward the subject, audience, or characters in the poem