

To accomplish this goal, I have to apply the formative assessment strategies during my semester 7 teaching practicum. These strategies will allow me to assess the students with functional formative assessment, while also providing opportunities for the students to interact, get used to the process, and improve their learning and motivation.